In the County Commission of said county, on the

the following, among other proceedings, were had, viz:

Now on this day, the County Commission of the County of Boone does hereby enter into the record the proclamation celebrating the 250th anniversary of American independence

PROCLAMATION CELEBRATING THE 250TH ANNIVERSARY OF AMERICAN INDEPENDENCE

Whereas, in the year 1776, the Continental Congress adopted the Declaration of Independence, asserting the right of the 13 American colonies to self-governance and freedom from British rule, thus founding the United States of America; and

Whereas, the document put into words the principles our nation would stand strong upon, asserting that all are created equal and endowed with certain inalienable rights, including life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness, and creating a foundation of freedom, democracy and justice; and

Whereas, the founding of the United States began a journey toward forming a "more perfect union," marked by historic achievements, struggles, and progress toward realizing the nation's founding ideals for all its citizens; and

Whereas, on July 4, 2026, the United States of America will commemorate its 250th anniversary, also known as the Semiquincentennial, and celebrate its legacy of freedom and achievement; and

Whereas, the Semiquincentennial presents all Americans with the opportunity to reflect upon our shared history, honor the diverse contributions of all Americans, celebrate our heritage of liberty, and look forward to the future we strive to create for subsequent generations; and

Whereas, in celebrating 250 years, we also pay tribute to the dedication and work ethic of the generations before us and encourage all Americans to honor that legacy by working together to address the challenges set before us and building a more equitable and prosperous society, based upon those original ideals of liberty, democracy, and justice.

Therefore, the County Commission of the County of Boone does hereby recognize the celebration of the 250th Anniversary of the founding of the United States of America and calls upon all Boone Countians to reflect on the extraordinary journey of our nation and recommit ourselves to the principles of liberty, justice, and democracy that continue to make America a nation worthy of pride and dedication.
